The Essence of Public Service

By: Zachary Peters

Sir Winston Churchill once said, “We make a living by what we get, we make a life by what we give.” That aspect of giving can be applied to public service.

There are a few names around Frederick County that specifically stand out right when you hear them: Roscoe Bartlett, Doc McClellan, Jim Grimes, Louise Snodgrass, Goodloe and Beverly Byron, just to name a few. Some people might even call some of these people “Good Ol’ Boys.” In the Town of Mount Airy, one of those names is Delaine Hobbs, who recently passed away.

In 2013, there was a special ceremony at the Mount Airy Town Hall honoring Mr. Hobbs for his 36 years of service to the town as an elected councilman. Even though he was a councilman, he was also far more than that: business owner, husband, father, ambulance crew member, volunteer fireman, and president of the Mount Airy Volunteer Fire Company – all while serving the town in elected office.

We can credit Mr. Hobbs for many of the improvements and aspects of Mount Airy that we still enjoy today. From implementing and improving the original sewer and wastewater system to having an open mind toward development, Mr. Hobbs always kept the needs of the town first rather than working on a personal agenda. This selfless behavior is rarely exemplified in politics today at all levels.

In his speech to the standing-room-only crowd that came out for the ceremony, Mr. Hobbs said that if it weren’t for his “pro-growth” attitude while in office, none of the sitting councilmen would be there today.

Mr. Hobbs consistently sacrificed time with his family for the betterment of the Town of Mount Airy in nearly every aspect. The majority of today’s public servants at the local level are focused on what is best for them – or their neighborhood – rather than the overarching needs of the community they represent.

Later in his remarks he referenced team work and how important that concept had been in all of his success in the town, yet another concept many elected officials simply cannot grasp.

If our nation would be lucky enough to have more dedicated and passionate servants such as Delaine Hobbs, we would truly live in a better country. We need more elected officials who are certain to govern based on their constituents’ needs, rather than their own. Not only that, but we need more elected officials who will sacrifice their personal time and feelings for the improvement of our nation. We deserve to have political leaders who aren’t afraid to serve in other capacities of the community, rather than just living off the fame of political office.

In essence, we need more men like Delaine Hobbs.

With all the recent news coverage and excitement about this year’s election, I challenge everyone to look at all of the candidates and ask yourself whether that individual would truly be the one who will consistently put your needs and the needs of your community in front of all else.

As a proud citizen of the Town of Mount Airy, I would like to thank Mr. Delaine Hobbs for everything he has done for our community and his nearly four decades of service. Please keep his family and friends in your thoughts and prayers. He will be sorely missed.

Visit the Mount Airy Museum Saturdays 12 noon until 4 pm.

Mount Airy Museum Volunteers Needed

The Historical Society tries to have the Mount Airy Museum open every Saturday from 1 o'clock p.m. until 4 o'clock p.m. beginning the first week in April until the first or second week in December. We would actually like to be open more. However, we cannot open unless we get volunteers to host our visitors.

Being a museum host is simple; you just open the door, turn on the lights, put out the "Museum Open" sign and occasionally answer visitor's questions. Between visitors you can read a good book or look through photographs stored on the museum's computer.

When it's time for you to leave, just bring in the sign, turn out the light, lock and close the door and make sure the door is locked. It is that simple.

We will take any time you can spare from an hour up to four hours on Saturdays. Ruth Ann Lowman will gladly show you what needs to be done and will show you how to view historic photographs.

As it stands now, we will not be able to open the museum several weekends during June and July for want of volunteers. If you have an hour or more to spare on Saturdays, please call Ruth Ann Lowman at 301-829-8293.

Many Thanks to Catonsville Homes

The Mount Airy Historical Society would like to thank the management and staff of Catonsville Homes for storing three display cases for the last thirteen years. These display cases were constructed under contract with Senior Cabinet maker, Wayne T. Johnson of the Walters Art Museum in Baltimore, Md. Mr Johnson fabricated the display cases in Mount Airy at the wood shop of Dertzbaugh Construction. Frank Dertzbaugh kindly donated the use of his shop, equipment, tools, materials during the construction of the cases.

These display cases were never used to display items at the museum. Sadly they have spent their entire life in storage. They were stored in the building housing The Blossom And Basket Bouquet. They were then moved to the Catonsville Home's Building on South Main Street until April 2016. They then needed to be moved again as a brewery will be coming to the area where the cases were stored. These cases have been moved to temporary storage.

Thank you again to Mr. Rob Scranton, Mr. Frank Potepan III, and Mr. Steve Edmondson of Catonsville Homes moving and storing these cases.

CITIZENS OF TOMORROW

Our picture gallery this week of some of Mount Airy's future citizens includes three pre-school-age youngsters who are their parents' pride and joy.

Brian E. Dennis, shown above at left, is 2½ years of age and is the attractive son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Dennis, who reside at 204 Carroll Avenue, here.

The young fellow in the center is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Miller, 504 Park Avenue, Mount Airy. Billy is five years old and is a fine looking lad.

On the right is David Watkins, who lives at 200 Hill St., Mount Airy. He is the attractive son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Watkins. David is four years old.
